ITALIAN CLASSIFICATION OF WINE

IGT - Indicazione Geografica Tipica

* Reserved for wines produced in a specific region in Italy. Winemakers follow specific vinification practices on authorized grape varieties *

DOP - Denominazione d'Origine Protetta

* Produced exclusively with grapes from a specific area. DOP status can only be acquired by one wine producer in the set geographical area. *

DOC - Denominazione d'Origine Controllata

* These wines use specific grapes from a smaller region within the IGT. Designed to preserve local vinification traditions, winemakers use defined methods for production *

DOCG - Denominazione d'Origine e Garantita

* Highest classification in Italy. Government tested and sealed to ensure the highest quality of wine *
